

Guidance on Role Play Scenarios

Cross Active Runway

Introduce scenario with a narrative and visual cues. Ask the workers to describe his/her response both in terms of operating the vehicle and radio contact. The trainer or another trainee may play the part of the Air Traffic Control responder.

Trainer:

Trainee Response should address x, y, and z

Trainer:

Trainee: Response should address x, y, and z

Lost on Airfield

Describe a scenario with a narrative and visual cues in which the trainee is unable to identify their location on the airfield. Ask the workers to describe his/her response both in terms of operating the vehicle and radio contact. The trainer or another trainee may play the part of the responder.

Trainer:

Trainee Response should address x, y, and z

Trainer:

Trainee: Response should address x, y, and z

Lost Communications

Describe a scenario with a narrative and cues in which the trainee is unable to contact Air Traffic Control while on the airfield. Ask the workers to describe his/her response in terms of operating the vehicle to exit the airfield safely.

Trainer:

Trainee Response should address x, y, and z

Trainer:

Trainee: Response should address x, y, and z

Guidance on Role Play Scenarios (continued)

Airfield Emergency

Describe an emergency scenario with a narrative and cues which details an emergency that occurs on the airfield (aircraft incident, fire, etc.). Ask the worker to describe their appropriate response to this emergency.

Trainer:

Trainee Response should address x, y, and z

Trainer:

Trainee: Response should address x, y, and z